

Explore the Williamsdale Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) project by Eku Energy, a 250MW/500MWh facility in Canberra. This project enhances energy security and reliability, storing ...

With ambitious climate targets - including 100% renewable electricity by 2025 - the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) relies on cutting-edge storage systems to stabilize its grid. Let's explore how these ...

The ACT Government is future-proofing Canberra's energy supply by expanding its renewable energy storage with a new partnership with global specialist energy storage business, Eku Energy, launched ...

The ACT Government will partner with global energy storage business Eku Energy, which will build and operate the facility at its own cost and make its money from buying and selling ...

Since 2012, we have contributed over 4.5 GW of renewable energy & storage assets and invested over $7 billion towards Australia's energy transition. The Capital Battery, proposed in south east ...

Venture capital fund Macquarie Group's new battery storage platform Eku Energy has been tapped by the Australian Capital Territory government to deliver the next stage of the Big ...

The project will deliver an ecosystem of batteries across the ACT to ensure its electricity grid remains stable, and will help to future-proof the state's electricity security.

Energy Storage is critical for ACT's 100% renewables and net-zero target. Helps to put downward pressure on electricity price paid by ACT consumers. Reduces the need for electricity network ...

In brief: The ACT Government is building a big battery in Williamsdale. Construction has begun, in partnership with Eku Energy. This project is part of larger efforts to make Canberra a ...

The Big Canberra Battery has inched a step closer to being built, with the ACT government announcing it will partner with Eku Energy to deliver the mass-energy storage device.

Web: <https://thehibiscuscoast.co.za>