

The EU Energy Summit 2026 will explore how to transform Europe's policy foundations into real-world progress: deploying clean energy infrastructure, accelerating innovation and building an energy ...

EUREC will host its College of Members meeting on 3-4 December 2025 in Brussels, with the Institute for Renewable Energy's Wolfram Sparber chairing the event in his role as EUREC ...

The 20th edition of European Sustainable Energy Week (EUSEW), will take place on 9-11 June 2026 in Brussels and online, under the overarching theme of "A clean, secure and competitive Energy Union".

The Renewable Energy House for the first time groups together all major actors in the field of renewable energy in Europe, thereby representing one of the fastest growing economic sectors with an annual ...

The European Master in Renewable Energy - EMRE - trains post-graduate students to become tomorrow energy specialists. Prepare yourself for the jobs of the future.

EUREC is the voice of renewable energy research in Europe, representing European Research Centres active in renewable energy. For further information about EUREC please visit our website at ...

Discover Europe's renewable energy policy, 2030 targets, achievements, challenges, and progress toward climate neutrality with 50% renewable electricity.

You find the EUFORES Secretariat in Brussels - in the heart of Europe, close to the European Commission's Berlaymont and to the European Parliament. Our offices are located in the Renewable ...

Web: <https://thehibiscuscoast.co.za>