

General Administration of Customs Flow Battery

China's commerce ministry and the General Administration of Customs on Thursday announced export control measures on items related to superhard materials, rare earth equipment ...

Abstract: GACC Announcement No.62 of 2022 (on Customs Clearance Notice and Facilitation Measures for the 5th China International Import Expo of 2022) Abstract: GACC Announcement No.54 of 2021 ...

Introduction On 9 October 2025, China's Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM) and the General Administration of Customs (Customs) jointly issued Decision No. 58 of 2025.

Through innovative regulatory models, the customs clearance time for imported mineral products and exported lithium batteries has been reduced by over 80%. Intelligent inspections have ...

Export operators shall be responsible for the authenticity of their customs declarations and shall strengthen identification of export items.

On July 3, 2023, MOFCOM and the General Administration of Customs issued Announcement No. 23 of 2023, imposing export controls on gallium- and germanium-related items. ...

Key Points: On October 9, 2025, the Ministry of Commerce and the General Administration of Customs announced Decision No. 58 of 2025, imposing export controls on items related to lithium batteries ...

Starting from December 1, 2023, China will impose formal export controls on the three highly sensitive graphite items that were previously subject to temporary export control measures ...

According to Joint Announcement No. 58 of 2025 issued by the Ministry of Commerce and the General Administration of Customs, effective from November 8, 2025, export controls will be implemented on ...

For any doubt about the declared information, the customs authorities will question it in accordance with the law, and the goods for export will not be released during the questioning period.

Web: <https://thehibiscuscoast.co.za>